

Bangladesh has a rich history and culture

Bangladesh is one of South Asia

Uniquely beautiful country which is full of rich cultural heritage and glorious history. Through the Great War of Liberation in 1971; The brave Bengalis brought the red sun of freedom.

Bengali language movement is the main basis of our national consciousness. The memory of the 4th of February, 1952 [sacrifice for the mother tongue] is celebrated today as the international mother tongue, around the world.

Ede She's traditional folk songs, baul songs and festive social atmosphere strengthen the mutual brotherhood and friendship of the people.